

BOARD OF ASSESSMENT APPEALS, STATE OF COLORADO 1313 Sherman Street, Room 315 Denver, Colorado 80203
Petitioner: WAYNE G. LYLE, v. Respondent: JEFFERSON COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.	Docket No.: 78940
ORDER OF DISMISSAL

THIS MATTER came before the Board of Assessment Appeals (“the Board”) on November 17, 2020, Amy Williams and Valerie Bartell presiding. Rebecca Klymkowsky, Esq. appeared on behalf of Respondent.

Neither Petitioner nor any representative for his estate appeared for the November 17, 2020 hearing. Respondent moved to dismiss the appeal on the grounds of Petitioner’s failure to appear.

A review of the Board’s case tracking notes indicates that on 8/27/2020 Petitioner’s partner, Elaine Rains, informed Board staff via a telephone call that Petitioner had passed away. Ms. Rains indicated that Petitioner’s son, Jeremy Lyle, had inherited the subject property. Through further correspondence, Mr. Lyle was made aware of the hearing date.

The Board granted Respondent’s motion on the record, and now issues this written Order of Dismissal.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the appeal is dismissed with prejudice.

APPEAL RIGHTS

If the decision of the Board is against Petitioner, Petitioner may petition the Court of Appeals for judicial review according to the Colorado appellate rules and the provisions of Section 24-4-106(11), C.R.S. (commenced by the filing of a notice of appeal with the Court of Appeals within forty-nine days after the date of the service of the final order entered).

If the decision of the Board is against Respondent, Respondent, upon the recommendation of the Board that it either is a matter of statewide concern or has resulted in a significant decrease in the total valuation of the respondent county, may petition the Court of Appeals for judicial review according to the Colorado appellate rules and the provisions of Section 24-4-106(11), C.R.S. (commenced by the filing of a notice of appeal with the Court of Appeals within forty-nine days after the date of the service of the final order entered).

In addition, if the decision of the Board is against Respondent, Respondent may petition the Court of Appeals for judicial review of alleged procedural errors or errors of law within thirty days of such decision when Respondent alleges procedural errors or errors of law by the Board.

If the Board does not recommend its decision to be a matter of statewide concern or to have resulted in a significant decrease in the total valuation of the respondent county, Respondent may petition the Court of Appeals for judicial review of such questions within thirty days of such decision. Section 39-8-108(2), C.R.S.

DATED and MAILED this 18th day of December, 2020.
