

BOARD OF ASSESSMENT APPEALS, STATE OF COLORADO 1313 Sherman Street, Room 315 Denver, Colorado 80203 <hr/> Petitioner:  TWILIGHT RIDGE LLC,  v.  Respondents:  LA PLATA COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION and LA PLATA BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.	Docket Nos.: 69061 &amp; 69723
ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

The above-captioned matters come back before the Board of Assessment Appeals (“BAA”) on remand from the Court of Appeals. Petitioner appealed the BAA’s orders to the Court of Appeals, which affirmed them in a published opinion in 2018. On certiorari review, the Supreme Court then remanded the appeals to the Court of Appeals for its reconsideration in light of its opinion in Board of County Commissioners v. Hogan, which was consolidated with two other cases and published as Mook v. Board of County Commissioners, 457 P.3d 568, and Ziegler v. Park County Board of County Commissioners, 457 P.3d 584. The Court of Appeals subsequently reversed and remanded the cases to the BAA for further proceedings.

The BAA received Petitioner’s request to withdraw the above-captioned matters by email dated April 11, 2022.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED the above-captioned appeals are dismissed with prejudice.

Dated and e-served this June 22, 2022.
